AndreySheptytsky is the greatest ecclesiastical figure in the history of the entire Ukrainian Church, said long-time postulator in the beatification process of Metropolitan Andrey Apostolic Exarch for Ukrainians in France, Benelux countries and Switzerland, Bishop MyhailHrynchyshyn. “How poor our church would be without Sheptytsky! He left a very great heritage,” said the bishop in an interview to Radio Svoboda. Bishop Hrynchyshyn has been interested in the figure of Metropolitan Andrey since 1944. In 1958 he became the postulator in the beatification of Sheptytsky. He said the process was officially opened under Pope John XXIII, who was personally acquainted with Metropolitan Andrey, and was very supportive of him. “John XXIII said that he knew Andrew Sheptytsky, that he was a great man who was not understood by his own and by others. After meeting with the pope, the process of beatification of Metropolitan Andrey officially began,” he said. The bishop noted that among the clergy of the Catholic Church there were also people who tried to disrupt the process of the beatification of the metropolitan. “At the beginning of the process Cardinal Wyszynski from Poland twice sought to end the process. But in 1959, the eldest son of the Chief Rabbi of Lviv, Kurt Lewin, came to Rome on his own initiative. Lewin testified in support of the metropolitan, who hid him and other Jews from the Nazis during World War II. Lewin proved the righteousness of the life of the metropolitan,” says Bishop Hrynchyshyn. “Pope John XXIII restored the process of beatification. But two years later Cardinal Wyszynski again appealed to the Congregation – and the process was halted. But in 1963, Cardinal JosyfSlipyj returned from exile and testified in the case of AndreySheptytsky. And the Pope renewed the process,” said the bishop. Bishop MykailHrynchyshyn noted that the beatification of Metropolitan Andrey is taking a long time, but that it will happen. “Even today we do not fully understand what a great man God gave the Ukrainian people and the church. We are still learning about the metropolitan today,” he said. “The Congregation for the Causes of Saints should consider the case of the recovery a girl in the United States. A Ukrainian family prayed to Metropolitan Andrey for the recovery of a child born with disabilities. This case is recorded; the doctors gave their opinions that this was a supernatural phenomenon. I hope that in a year or two the metropolitan will be proclaimed blessed,” said Bishop MykhailHrynchyshyn.

24 червня 2012 року Блаженніший Святослав (Шевчук), Глава УГКЦ, підчас недільної Літургії у ділях святих чотирьох священників і дияконові у Патріаршому соборі Воскресіння Христового, що в Києві.

Під час проповіді Предстоятель Церкви підкреслює, що Господь Бог

«зодягне цих нових священників і диякона в красу, яка перевершує красу лілеї, зодягне і гідністю бути священником-учасником вічного священства і краси небесної слави, яку лише зображають шатися священничого одягу».

«Господь Бог будесьогодні посилати цих священників навчати народ, освячувати людею словом істини, визволяти їх від гріха і служіння всьому тому, чому служать погани, тобто неБогові, а речам чисотвореним особам. Вони мають бути визволителями нашого народу і, допомагаючи єпископам керувати Божим людом, спрямовувати життя своєї вірних до пошуку і довідновлення Царства Небесного», - сказав промовець. Крім того, Блаженніший Святослав зазначив, що «представники духовенства УГКЦ в нашій державі є найбільш соціально незахищеними людьми». «Бовони живуть з милостині, їхній достаток і добробут залежить від милосердя людей. Тому донихсьогодні – майбутніх священників,

Господь каже: дбайте насамперед про Царство Небесне, тобто шукайте його і ведіть доньоговсіх вірних. А всерешта - те, що вам потрібно буде для вашого життя і служіння, Бог вам подасть», - пояснив Глава Церкви.

Трактуючи слованедільного Євангелія, яким була нагірна проповідь Ісуса Христа, Патріарх сказав:

«Якщо основою життя людини буде служіння Богові, а нема моні, тоді людина відчує, що

Небесний Отець є той, хто пронеїдбає». Напереконання Глави УГКЦ, у

нагірній проповіді Господь Бог подає нам нову заповідь, новий закон, який перевершує за своєю справедливістю закон Мойсея, адже у своєму навчанні Він говорить про новий стосунок Бога до людини, людини до Бога, а відтак людини до всьогото, що Господь Бог сотворив, - довидимого і невидимого світу.

«Якщо ми центральною метою свого життя поставимо пошук нашого Спасителя, пошук Бога і вічної правди та івтілення в особисте життя, тоді станемо вірними особами, сотвореними на образ і подобу Божу, які живуть у свободі синів Божих, а не Його слуг чирабів», - підкреслює він.

НаостанокБлаженнішийСвятослав (Шевчук) висловивпобажання, щобГосподьзаприкладом молодиххлопців, яківідчулисвоєсвященичепокликання, допомігкожномуізнасрозумітите, щоНебеснийОтецьналюбитьтапронадбає.

Servant of God Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen is now “Venerable” after the Vatican announced today that Benedict XVI had signed a decree recognising that the Archbishop heroically lived Christian virtues.

The announcement of the decree marks a significant step in the canonization cause of Peoria, Ill.-born Archbishop Sheen (1895-1979), the Emmy award-winning televangelist whose program, "Life is Worth Living," was broadcast from 1951 to 1957.

The Vatican now has to recognise a miracle has occurred through his intercession for him to be beatified, the penultimate step to canonization. Alleged miracles have been reported, which are now being assessed by experts in Rome.

For little over a year, the Congregation for the Causes of Saints has been examining his cause based on volumes of Archbishop Sheen's life gathered in his home diocese of Peoria. The Congregation will have first examined if the archbishop had shown evidence of the three theological virtues of faith, hope and charity, and then the four cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude and temperance.

Theologians and cardinals will then have confirmed that he did indeed practice heroic virtue, leading the Holy Father, with the aid of the Consulters from the Congregation, to declare him "Venerable". Now that the Pope promulgated the decree of heroic virtue, the former bishop of Rochester, NY, may now be venerated by all the faithful.
