St. John Vianney- The Cure D'Ars Catechism on Salvation “If you really love God, you will greatly desire to see Him loved by all the world”

My children, the three acts of faith, hope and charity contain all the happiness of man upon the earth. By faith, we believe what God has promised us: we believe that we shall one day see Him, that we shall possess Him, that we shall be eternally happy with Him in Heaven. By hope, we expect the fulfillment of these promises; we hope that we shall be rewarded for all our good actions, for all our good thoughts, for all our good desires; for God takes into account even our good desires. What more do we want to make us happy?

In Heaven, faith and hope will exist no more, for the mist which obscures our reason will be dispelled; our mind will be able to understand the things that are hidden here below. We shall no longer hope for anything, because we shall have everything. We do not hope to acquire a treasure which we already possess...But love; oh, we shall be inebriated with it! We shall be drowned, lost in that ocean of divine love, annihilated in that immense charity of the Heart of Jesus! So that charity is a foretaste of Heaven. Oh, how happy should we be if we knew how to understand it, to feel it, to taste it! What makes us unhappy is that we do not love God.

When we say, “My God, I believe, I believe firmly,” that is, without the least doubt, without the least hesitation...Oh, if we were penetrated with these words: “I firmly believe that Thou art present everywhere, that Thou seest me, that I am under Thine eyes, that one day I myself shall see Thee clearly, that I shall enjoy all the good things that Thou hast promised me! O my God, I hope that Thou wilt reward me for all that I have done to please Thee! O my God, I love Thee; my heart is made to love Thee!” Oh, this act of faith, which is also an act of love, would suffice for everything! If we understood our own happiness in being able to love God, we should remain motionless in ecstasy...

If a prince, an emperor, were to cause one of his subjects to appear before him and should say to him, “I wish to make you happy; stay with me, enjoy all my possessions, but be careful not to give me any just cause of displeasure,” with what care with what ardor, would not that subject endeavor to satisfy his prince! Well, God makes the same proposals to us...and we do not care for His friendship, we make no account of His promises...What a pity!

Молитва на п'яту неділю Великого Посту Господи Боже отців наших, Ти даруєш молитву тому, хто молиться, і приймаєш моління слуг Твоїх, що взивають до Тебе вдень і вночі. Прихили нині вухо Твоє і почуй прощення нас, грішних, не відвертай, Господи, лиця Твого від нас, грішних, і не згадуй колишніх беззаконь наших, бо Ти знаєш ество наше і свідомий немочі нашої. Згадай, Господи, що порох ми, дух, що проходить і не повертається, і величчю руки Твоєї подбай про життя наше у Твоїй милості. Веди нас праведною дорогою, щоб ми йшли стежкою заповідей Твоїх. Навчи нас творити волю Твою і говорити, як заповідав Ти, роздумувати про закон Твій вдень і вночі. Звели Ангелам Твоїм охороняти нас на всіх путях наших і ізбавляти нас від стріли, що вдень літає, від того, що в п'тьмі блукає, від нападів і біса полуденного. Наповни губи наші хвалою Твоюю і уста наші радістю, щоб ними говорили ми з благодаттю у псалмах, співах і піснях духовних, і оспівували в серцях наших, і благодарення воздавали Тобі, Богові всього, що спасаєш тих, які уповають на безмір милости Твоєї, бо Ти благий і чоловіколюбний Бог еси, і Тобі славу возсилаємо, Отцю, і Сину, і Святому Духові, нині і повсякчас, і на віки віків. Амінь (Молитва з Чину Трітоєкті).
