On 25th-27th of August, the VI session of Patriarchal Council of Ukrainian Greek-Catholic Church “The Vibrant Parish – a place to encounter a Living Christ” took place in Ivano-Frankivsk.

His Beatitude Sviatoslav explained, it is said about a face of Church that we want to show to the world in 2020: “Then, similarly to a good painter who starts to make a definite shape of specific features of a person’s face that he wants to depict, we have distinguished the features of something we call a vibrant parish”.

First of all it was talked about a real guidance, because if there is no a real priest, then there is no a real parish; about a Liturgy; sharing faith (catechism); about an opportunity to form a community; about an importance of serving and a mission spirit at a parish.
